The Exploring Law course has been designed by the University of Cambridge Faculty of Law to give you a real taste of what studying law at university involves. The major ambition is to enable you to decide whether a law degree is right for you, as well as to help you develop understanding and skills that will assist you when applying to university and then starting out as a law student.

The Big Work Experience Challenge runs from January to April and gives you the chance to explore real work experience, build skills, and take steps towards your future. This year, there's an extra way to stay motivated: Rockets. Rockets are points you earn for meaningful activity on Springpod – and during February and March, earning Rockets can also unlock real prizes. This guide explains how the Challenge works, what Rockets are, how to earn them, and how rewards work.

JOB OF THE WEEK

[Music
Publisher](#)

A music publisher secures, manages, and exploits the copyrights of musical compositions, acting as a bridge between songwriters/composers and revenue sources. They promote songs for film/TV/ads, register works with collecting societies, and collect royalties. Key duties include creative A&R, copyright administration, and licensing to maximise income.

OTHER NEWS

On Wednesday 25th February we were delighted to welcome two student ambassadors from the University of Leeds Food Science and Nutrition faculty. Georgia and Lauren delivered an assembly to Y9 based on the food industry and how careers in food are all around us.

During period 1 they delivered a taster session with Y12 and Y13 Food Science and Nutrition students where they discussed the food science behind emulsifiers and ice cream and conducted an experiment. They also discussed in more detail different routes into the food industry such as apprenticeships and degree options. Thank you, Georgia and Lauren, for your time today! And thank you to Miss Hullah for organising the visit.

Reminder to students leaving school in summer to get those applications in. Links for colleges and job/apprenticeship sites were sent to tutors this week - if you need the links and you've not already had them, please ask or see Ms Fulford.
